TO CONTRACTORS.

OFFICE PEN. COMMISSION,

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 21, 1870.

SEALED Proposals will be received by the Commissioners of the North Carolina Penitentiary at their office, Raleigh, N. C., until noon of Wednesday the 20th of April, 1870, for the erection of the Penitentiary on the site chosen for that purpose near the city of Raleigh. Bids to be endorsed "Proposals for Building the Penitentiary," and addressed to the care of G. Wm. Welker, Sec. to the Commission. The plan, drawings and specifications may be seen and inspected, and additional information if desired obtained at the office of the Assistant Architect at Raleigh, N. C., or of L. T. Scofield, Esq., Architect, Cleveland, Ohio. Bids to be made in the forms prescribed by the Architect, printed copies of which and of specifications may be procured on application to the Architect or Assistant Architect. Bids are invited for the following separate divisions of the work, viz:

1. Stone Masonry and Cut Stone.
2. Brick Work.
3. Plastering.
4. Wrought and Cast Iron Work.
5. Carpenter and Joiner's Work.
6. Painting and Glazing.
7. Galvanized Iron Work and Slating.
8. Plumbing and Gas Fitting.

The Quarry is quite near the site of the building. The stone are good and the Commission have the lease of the entire quarry for all purposes of the Penitentiary. The Commission will receive bids for the Brick work both to lay the brick, they furnishing the brick, or for the entire job of brick work, the contractor taking from millions of brick already provided by the Commission, at the price paid for them.

Each bidder shall specify what number of convicts he will engage to employ on his contract, and what wages he will pay for them provided the Commissioners furnish guard and overseer, and board and clothe the convicts.

Each bid to be accompanied with a written guarantee signed by two responsible sureties, and duly stamped. The Commissioners reserve the right to reject any or all bids, to accept or decline to close a contract, as in their discretion they may deem it their duty to do.

All the work to be forwarded as rapidly as practicable, and completed at the earliest possible period. The Commissioners reserve the privilege of taking possession of the several parts of the building, from time to time, as soon as in their judgment it can be occupied.

Each bidder will furnish his post office address and hold himself in readiness, with his sureties, to enter promptly into contract on the acceptance of his bid. Copies of the specifications can be had of the Assistant Architect by mailing $5, which sum will be returned when the specifications are returned. Proportional payments on monthly estimates will be made as the work progresses, retaining ten per cent. until the contract is completed.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENTIN THE WORLD!!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!

No more Smoke!—No more Grease!

No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 6th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and unobjectionable to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure the introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

"OLD WELKER'S TREED."

Whig Tom Alston, of Warren, is a modest, retiring gentleman, and will, perhaps, be a little shocked to see his name in print; but it can do him no serious harm, and, therefore, begging his pardon for the liberty, we shall proceed to relate a little anecdote concerning him and others, while school boys at Oxford, some thirty years ago.

Tom Alston and Joe Littlejohn, and, perhaps, others of the school boys, spent a good deal of their nights in fishing and hunting. Joe, on one occasion, after hunting all the night before, fell asleep in the school room, and dreaming, no doubt, of the night's sport, suddenly walked out into the middle of the floor, still asleep, and cried out, "come on, boys; bring the axe, old Welker's treed." (Welker was the name of the 'possum dog.)

Many schoolmasters would have waked Joe up with a switch, especially in our modern Do-the-boys Halls. But Joe's teacher brought him to his senses and a recurrence to his "hic, hæc, hoc," by throwing a bucket of water over him, to the great amusement of the school.

"Mas Tod," the Lieutenant Governor, set "Old Welker," out on a hunt, before the close of the session of the General Assembly, but "Welker" got on a false trail and "barked up the wrong tree." The story runs somewhat in this wise:

Mas Tod, it seems, had had a Railroad bill passed under which he hoped to be made President of the Road. Littlefield, not liking the arrangement, had a bill got through, somehow, in Mas Tod's absence which defeated his plans, and it was said that a certain prominent Democrat paid Littlefield $11,000 for engineering the counterplot bill through the two houses.

"Mas Tod," being thus headed off, and becoming too impatient to wait for the movements of the Bragg-Phillips committee, induced Senator Welker to introduce Resolutions raising a special committee to investigate the little transaction which had lost him the coveted Presidency.

Welker took the trail and treed, but wouldn't stand to the tree when he found there was no Democrat up it. If he had pressed his questions upon Gen. Clingman, as he should have done, the General could have disclosed deep laid villainy in the passage of the bill.

Welker should have sent Gen. Clingman to the Bar of the Senate, or taken some other course to force him to tell what he knew relative to the subject of investigation.

Gen. Clingman testified before the Welker committee, "that he was consulted confidentially by one person with reference to some bill relating to the subject embraced in this bill, and that he was especially requested to consider the application as a confidential one between a client and his attorney; such information as was confided to him in that interview he did not feel at liberty to disclose, nor even to mention the name of the applicant."

Gen. Clingman, we are informed, has not attempted to practice law in twenty years, and it is certain we never heard of his practicing in Wake before, and the idea that privileged communications were made to him about the passage of a bill by the Legislature is altogether preposterous, and will be viewed by all unprejudiced minds as a miserable subterfuge.

Welker and his committee deserved the censure of the Senate, and they will receive not only the censure, but condemnation of the people, for not compelling Gen. Clingman to answer.

No one can read the report without being convinced that there were underhanded and corrupt means used to get the bill through, and this committee ought to have more effectually exposed the means and the active agents who employed them. We shall endeavor to supply this neglect of the committee, and ventilate the whole matter, before "the swallows homeward fly."

NOT SO.

A gentleman in the West writes us that there is not a word of truth in the statement made in the Standard, that a man was shot recently in Dallas, Gaston county.

Major Smith brought a report to the Standard, some days since, that a man had been hung in Alamance, subsequent to the hanging of Outlaw. In that case the Major went off half cocked, and his paper was afterwards obliged to correct the statement.

But there was as much truth in the Major's cock-and-bull story of the hanging in Alamance, as there is about the shooting in Dallas. Will the Standard, in justice to the people of Dallas, correct its statement, or give the name of its informant?

INQUISITIVE.—The Governor's son Joseph, is a very ignorant body, judging from the long catalogue of "things he would like to know," as appears in the Standard of yesterday morning. No doubt he will find out several of the things he "wants to know," if he will be vigilant in watching the progress of events, and earnest in his inquiries after truth. We are gratified at seeing this laudable desire of knowledge on the part of the young man, and advise him to observe his daddy's old motto, "Watch and wait," and he will learn a good many things he "wants to know," as well as some, perhaps, he don't want to know, in the course of time.

WHERE IS THAT BILL?

On Saturday night before the adjournment, in the House of Commons, a bill from the Senate abolishing the salary of the Code Commission after the first of June next, was taken up and passed its second reading without discussion. On its passage upon the third reading, twelve-hundred-dollar Stevens, of Craven, raised the point that no quorum voted, but withdrew the objection and the Speaker declared the bill had passed its third and final reading.

In looking over the captions, we do not find this bill mentioned. What became of it? Did the Speakers forget to sign it?

The people of the State have had enough of Victor Barringer, Rodman and Tourgee; and have paid them about enough for copying the New York Code for this State. It is full time for Rodman and Tourgee to cease drawing two full salaries each, for two different offices at the same time, out of the people's money, and for these Code Commissioners to betake themselves to some more honest and honorable mode of making a living.

We call the attention of the Governor and his son-in-law, Louis, the Attorney General, to this bill.

If Rodman, Barringer and Tourgee shall continue to draw their salaries, as Code Commissioners from the Treasury, let the Governor and his son-in-law, the Attorney General, resort to Holden's favorite writ, the writ of injunction, and cut them off from the receipts of their ill-gotten gains.

For the Sentinel.

OLD MR. CLINGMAN—ABUT AD PLURES!

MR. EDITOR:—When a man died among the Romans they said of him, abiit ad plures, "gone to the majority," inasmuch as the dead were so many more than the living.—I have just read Mr. Clingman's address, and the above came forcibly to my mind. It applies here in a literal and a figurative sense. He has joined the majority and is also dead. His Radicalism and his political death denote a happy conjunction, and illustrate the eternal fitness of things. And it is well. Such a life should have such an end. The orbit of his political eccentricities is now complete, the ring is rounded! He has now sounded every depth and shallow in the demagogue's career—has been everything and on every side of every question, known to the researches of American politics; and he must now sheathe his sword for lack of argument. Whig, Democrat, Secessionist, Unionist, war man, peace man, Conservative, Radical! He has tried all, except honesty. We advise him not to try that now. Advanced in years, of a delicate constitution, and much broken down in the service of Littlefield and Swepson, should he, at this late day, conclude to try honesty, we are warranted by the best medical authority, in saying that such an abnormal departure would snap the cords of life short off!

Having wheedled Ben. Butler and Chas. Sumner until he got his disabilities removed, he wants to go to Congress from the mountain district. He brings his sheaves with him, offers Holden & Co., all the votes he can secure by making mountain Conservatives believe that the men who put our seven millions in their pockets are not to blame for the failure of the railroad; but that 38 Democrats in the Legislature are, though there were 132 Radicals in the same body! It's too late! He has arrived at home. He can't arouse the old prejudices of Whiggery and Democracy, whilst the foe of both is plundering and destroying the State! Let us dismiss him to general contempt, to silence and oblivion; and write upon him and his "address," hic jacet!

Here in this neglected spot is laid,
An aged Rip, (o politics we know,)
He tried all parties and swore to each, 'tis said,
But Scalawaggery marked him for her own.

Large was his grip for place, and step by step
For it put virtue, honor, truth behind,
And hired to bear the bonds by Littlefield
And swep
He gave freely all he had—his mind!

Dear friends, abuse him not, just let him rest,
His twists an turns shall make his memory
rot,
He'll find it hard enough below to pay that debt,
He made up here, and oh saine Got!

HENDRIX GLAWS & COMPANY.

TROY N. C., March 17, 1870.

MR. EDITOR:—This is Montgomery Court week; Judge Buxton did not reach here until Tuesday 12 o'clock, M., much to the annoyance and inconvenience of the busy farmers and tax-oppressed people. Justice to the Judge, however, requires that I should say that he gives more general satisfaction than any Radical Judge in the State. He is fair and patient on the bench, meets a question squarely, and generally decides it correctly. It is noticeable, however, that off the bench, he is very affable and polite, and a stranger would infer that he was an aspirant, electioneering for political preferment,—natural consequence of the Radical way of making Judges.

It had been reported that you were to address the people on Tuesday, and there was great disappointment at your non appearance. Even Tryon Morris wanted to hear you. "Yankee Davis" from Peaback, "the Governor's Treasurer" was there in all his glory; his business being to prosecute Mr. Jordan for beating, caning and kicking him, sometime ago.

He announced in the Hotel to a crowd, that he "was prepared to entertain his friends at his room, that he had two (2) gallons of whisky, one (1) box of tobacco, two (2) women, and sixteen (16) boxes of oysters, and he wanted them to come up and spend the night with him." Mrs. Harris Jordan and the SENTINEL have sent him "where the woodbine twineth," so far as the suffrage of the people goes.

Yours truly,

CITIZEN.

P. S.—I forgot to mention that a sound of revelry and carousing was heard proceeding from Davis' quarters all night. I suppose he and his friends did enjoy themselves, and that he had made the announced preparations. Two women (one white and one black), were seen about his room.

N. C. AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—The Executive Committee of the North Carolina Agricultural Society are requested to convene at the office of the Society, at the corner of Fayetteville street and Market Square, on Wednesday the 20th April inst., at 9 o'clock, A. M., on important business.

The Executive Committees of the district and county Agricultural Societies are requested to meet with us on this occasion, or to send delegates for the purpose. A conference as to the time of holding the Annual Fair, and on other subjects of common interest, will be of great advantage to all. All the Societies in the State can be made by concert of action to assist one another, and I desire to secure this harmonious co-operation.

RADICAL PLOTTINGS—SCHEME OF THE PRESIDENT AND THE RADICALS FOR RETAINING THEMSELVES IN POWER—THE SOUTH TO BE SACRIFICED TO PARTY ENDS.

There is no longer a doubt of the issue which the Radicals in Congress, abetted by the President, are prepared to force upon the South and before the country. Alarmed by the certainty that the Southern States, reconstructed or unreconstructed, cannot further be relied on to sustain the Republican party, and convinced by unmistakable signs that that party, unsecored from the South, cannot overcome the powers arrayed and rising against it in the North and West in season for the next Presidential election, they are ready for the desperate resort of another civil war. Their legislation indicates this; their acts lead to it; nay, their leaders proclaim it here in the national capital. It is their purpose to regain and retain by military force, if possible, the ascendency they have lost in the quarter where they vainly thought to have constructed of negro suffrage, and cemented with carpet-bagism, a new political strong-hold.

In Georgia, Tennessee, and North Carolina, the three Southern States where symptoms of disgust at Radicalism and its Northern envoys are perhaps most saliently manifest, the system of repression resolved upon is now surely destined to be applied, if the people of those States can be goaded into furnishing a plausible excuse for it. In North Carolina Governor Holden has called for Federal troops, for suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, and for military commissions, with the object of creating a reign of terror and preventing the people from overturning in August the dynasty which has ruined the finances of that State. In Tennessee the Radicals, headed by their delegation in Congress who were elected in November, 1868, by fraud, now propose a new reconstruction, the disfranchisement of the population, including the voters who voted for them then upon fraudulent certificates of registration, but have since turned against them, the overthrow of the present State government, and military rule. In Georgia, Bullock seeks to set aside the regular election in November next, knowing well that the people would, by an overwhelming vote, expel him and his whole band of harpies. But even this policy is deemed by the bitterest partisans of the United States Senate less prudent and secure than the establishment in Georgia, of a standing army of Federal troops, exed out by the negro militia, to be stationed in Democratic counties at the expense of the local population, with military commissions organized to convict. Such is literally the proposition introduced in the Senate on Friday by Dr. Drake, of Missouri, and supported with rancorous vigor by him and several other Republican Senators on that day and to day.

But it is not in these three States alone that the Radicals in Congress and President Grant perceive the signs of a dissolution of the Republican party ascendancy, and a melting away of their chances for the control of the national government. They are aware of the probability, which has long been patent to Democrats, in Congress, particularly to such as have by their committee relations been brought in contact with delegates from the Southern people, that there is hardly one, possibly not one, of the old slave States which, if left to itself even in conformity to the reconstruction laws, would fail to roll in a Democratic majority at the very next State or national election.

The negro vote, first trusted by Radicalism to serve its purposes and those alone, is too plastic to be relied on by a party not actually in strong, controlling power. Overwhelming evidence exists, not merely of the ability of Southern white leaders, given a fair field, to persuade the negroes away from the support of Northern Radicals and Southern apostates now set in office among them, but of the actual tendency of the negro population to a political alliance with their old masters and friends for the practical purposes of local tranquility, industrial prosperity, and mutual protection.

Throughout the South it is certain that, if let alone, the States will have no more carpet-bag Governors, and send no more carpet bag or Radical members, of what ever ilk to Congress. Likewise in Ohio, Missouri, Indiana, and other Northern and Western commonwealths, the Radical party feels its former vantage ground crumbling under the weight of tariff and taxation. From every side come warnings to the party of a fall.

The strait is the more desperate by reason of the monstrous corruptions in which some of the leaders of the party are implicated—corruptions which, in the event of a change of the national administration and the overhauling of department records here, would at once be exposed and fastened upon their authors. Motives the strongest—self defence, of self preservation even—inspire these men and their political associates to retain their hold upon the legislation and administration of affairs.

In a recent conversation, General Banks, one of the ablest Radicals in the House, averred that, if he had his way, he would make war on the Southern States, and again obtain military possession of them—Being asked to explain the object of such a course against States which have complied with all the requirements of the reconstruction acts, he answered that what the Republican party have to fear is the Northern and Western Democracy, and that safety in such a juncture demands a new and arbitrary control of the South. The statement of which the substance is thus given was repeated by General Banks at a dinner party. Nor are such asseverations confined to him or to half a dozen like him.

General Butler, while examining the Hon. Dorsey B. Thomas, Speaker of the Tennessee Senate, as a witness before the Reconstruction Committee last Thursday, so grossly insulted him that Democratic members of the Committee had to interfere. It is believed that General Butler, has as much personal and political reason as any man in his party for adopting, at this critical period, such methods of reprisal and aggravation towards representatives of the Conservative party in the South. He is ready—anxious—to lead the vindictive crusade; and, were it not that the President is so bent upon assuming himself the role of a leader, might hope for speedy recognition in that capacity. But President Grant gives every token of willingness to play into the hands of the carpet bag Governors and Congressmen, whose game is now the game of Radicalism, as decided upon in its most confidential councils. He has to day expressed himself in favor of Bullock, and there is little reason to hope that he will not comply with the demand of Holden. He promised in his message to execute the laws. Whatever Congress does, looking to a new subjugation of the South, will stand in no peril of his veto.

The Radical party cannot afford to lose the next House of Representatives, and Grant cannot afford to lose his hold upon the suffrage of the Southern negroes pending the next Presidential election.

INQUEST.—The body of the negro man who recently drowned near the railroad wharf rose to the surface yesterday, and was brought to the shore. The Coroner held an inquest over the remains, and a verdict of accidental drowning was rendered, in accordance with the facts.—Journal of Commerce.

HOLLYWOOD MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION—THE CONFEDERATE DEAD AT GETTYSBURG—LETTER FROM GENERAL R. E. LEE.

The following was sent to us yesterday for publication:

LEXINGTON, VA., March 8, 1870.

My Dear Mrs. ——: I have felt great interest in the success of the scheme of the Hollywood Memorial Association of Richmond for the removal of the Confederate dead at Gettysburg since learning of the neglect of their remains on the battle-field. I hope that sufficient funds may be collected by the Association to accomplish this pious work. I feel assured that it will receive the grateful thanks of the humane and benevolent. May I request you to apply the enclosed amount to this object.

* * * * * * *

With great respect and esteem, I am your most obedient servant, R. E. LEE,
To Mrs. ——, Richmond, Va.

The above letter was received in Richmond by one of the directors of the Hollywood Memorial Association enclosing a very handsome contribution from General Lee to aid in the removal of the Confederate dead from Gettysburg. As it was a private letter it was not published until permission was granted by General Lee.—In a subsequent letter, dated 17th March, 1870, he says: "My former letter was written for your own eye, and I am always reluctant to be unnecessarily brought before the public. Still, if you think that its publication will be of any aid to the cause which the Hollywood Memorial Association has so kindly undertaken, I cannot refuse the slight assistance within my power."

We are informed by the President of the National Cemetery at Gettysburg—David Willis, Esq.—that the charter incorporating the association in charge of that national cemetery provides only for the "interment of the remains of those who fell in defence of the Union." It is estimated that 7,000 Confederate dead were hastily interred at Gettysburg, 600 alone having their graves marked. The marks on these 600 graves, Mr. Willis informs us, are fast becoming obliterated. The remains of the 7,000 of our kindred who there offered so willingly their lives for us and ours are constantly, we are told, being thrown out from their shallow sepulchres "as the farmers cultivate their fields."

An appeal has been already made to the Southern people by the Hollywood Association to aid in the removal of what we once esteemed "our beloved and honored dead" from Gettysburg, a work which Gen. Lee terms "a pious work," and of which he, in the letter above copied, says: "I feel assured that it will receive the grateful thanks of the humane and benevolent." The appeal went forth more than a year ago, and about one thousand dollars have been received by the association from the following sources:

From Norfolk, Va., about	$450 00
From Richmond, Va., about	294 00
From Gen. Lee and his family about	125 00
From a lady in Louisiana	25 00
From the State of Alabama	85 00
From the State of Georgia	46 00

These figures require little commentary. We would simply ask, are they a true indication of our estimate of what we fought, bled and died for, during those memorable years between April, 1861, and April, 1865? Is life so cheap in this our land of chivalry, or is a name and a nation but an empty sound? The Legislature of Louisiana has recently—nobly, we would say—authorized $5,000 to be paid from her public treasury for the protection of her dead at Fredericksburg. It was a righteous act on her part, for it is her solemn duty to guard the graves of her children wherever found.—They rest, however, in Virginia, where the grave of the Southern soldier who fell under Lee and Jackson will ever be a hallowed spot. But our dead at Gettysburg find no resting place. Their bones lie scattered on that terrible field, exposed to every insult, polluted and cast out by North and South, by friend and foe. The Soldiers' National Cemetery has no place for them, as it is only for "the remains of those who fell in defence of the Union;" and they are thrown out of the shallow sepulchres in which, in our haste, on the field of battle, we interred them, exposed to every insult "as the farmers cultivate their fields."

If there is indeed any one thing that makes us tremble more than all for the future of our country, it is the quick oblivion that covers the past. The nation that never remembers the past will never be mindful of the future. The present alone will be its God.

We ask, shall this be so in the South? Shall the North provide for its dead, and have we no thought for ours? Where is our boasted pride and chivalry? Eighty-five dollars from Alabama and forty-six dollars from Georgia! Nothing from South Carolina! Nothing from Tennessee! Nothing from Mississippi! Nothing from Texas! Nothing from Arkansas! Nothing from Florida! If this had been told in their lives to the seven thousand men whose bones now lie on the field of Gettysburg—the "seven thousand who have not bowed the knee to Baal"—do you think they would have so willingly offered up their lives for us and ours, to make us a nation, to give us liberty, if they had been told that we would let their bones be thus thrown out of their graves "as the farmers cultivate their fields?" In the name of our country, in the name of our kindred, in the name of honor, in the name of bare humanity, we ask the Southern States and Southern people, one and all, to come forward and rescue our name and the cause for which so many died from this infamous reproach, that unless immediately removed, will be a lasting reproach to the latest day to us and our children forever, individually and nationally. VIRGINIA.

Communications and remittances may be sent to Mrs. George W. Randolph, Richmond, Virginia.

Southern papers are respectfully requested to copy this appeal at once, and bring it to the notice of the Southern people.

[From the London Saturday Review, Feb. 5th.]

AMERICAN JUDGES.

Few things are full of uglier omen for the future of the United States than that growing disrespect for the judicial body which seems to be spreading itself through the country. The stories which now reach us are widely different from anything heard before of American Judges. The worst we formerly knew of the Bench, even in the wildest frontier States, was that its occupants did not wear precisely the same awful costume and practice the same dignified usages as the Judges and Barons of Westminster Hall; but it was probable that they knew a great deal more of law than anybody about them, and that they did not flinch from applying what they knew. Even the functionary who decided the celebrated case of Silas Fixings was probably right in his conclusions, and certainly he was not afraid to back them. But now almost every mail brings us proof that in the largest and not the least civilized of the older States charges of flagrant corruption against Judges are of every-day circulation, and though it is every now and then urged that the character of such or such a gentleman is beyond suspicion, or that the evidence is not thought in such or such a case to warrant the accusation, nobody dreams of asserting that the corrupt taking of money or money's worth for justice by a Judge is inconceivable or impossible, or even uncommon. If Americans were in the habit of comparing the facts which fall under their immediate notice with the experience and history of other communities, they would see that this phenomenon of judicial corruption, generally believed, but acquiesced in without much very serious complaint, has no parallel or example since the beginning of civilization. Some of its mischievous consequences are beginning to be felt, not only by simple Erie bondholders, but by the English legal profession. The two branches of the English race knew curiously little of one another till the War of Secession, but there was an exception to this ignorance in the steady interchange of judicial precedents. There were certain American names which were appealed to here with scarcely less confidence than Coke or Mansfield. But quite recently English Judges have been known to shrink from recognising the authority of modern American cases, and very possibly not quite fairly distinguishing between one man and another or between one State and another, have significantly inquired what these charges of corruption meant.

It is quite clear, from English experience, that the best security for learning and purity in the Bench is learning and a feeling of honor among the Bar. The mere discomfort of sitting in a Court full of men of greater knowledge and higher honor than himself would keep the incapable party hack from desiring a seat on the Bench; and, beyond this, the experience of several communities shows that a popular constituency charged with the selection of functionaries for whom professional qualifications are required is influenced in the strongest way by professional opinion. But the American Legislatures have, we are told, adopted of late the policy of nearly open admission to the legal portession, the advocates of the measure defending it on the extraordinarily fallacious ground that there is no more reason why special conditions should be demanded for the calling of a legal practitioner than for the calling of a grocer or a butcher.

It is very difficult for an Englishman to judge to how many American States the suspicion of judicial corruption justly extends. Yet there are many signs that the sacredness of the judicial office is passing away every where. Nobody has ventured to breathe a word against the character of the Judges of the United States, but yet there is evidently no scruple in packing for party purposes the Supreme Court, probably in some respects the most august tribunal in the world. The party now all-powerful evidently intends not merely to keep Democrats and Southern partisans out of it (which under existing circumstances would be scarcely wonderful), but to deny entrance into it to deny entrance into it to all but the extremest fanatics of its own opinions.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

FRIDAY, APRIL 1, 1870.

☞ THEO. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.—The annual meeting of this Association will be held in the Session Room of the Presbyterian Church, on Monday the 4th inst., at 4 o'clock P. M.

ANOTHER KU KLUX OUTRAGE IN ALAMANCE.—We learn that Governor Holden has received information of another Ku Klux outrage in Alamance County, which took place some day last week. It seems a female residing in the vicinity of Graham, captured one of the United States troops stationed at that place, and that an acting Justice of the Peace of the county assisted her in binding him fast, thus giving official sanction to the act. We do not know whether the Governor, in consequence of this information has telegraphed the President for additional troops to suppress this new insurrectionary movement, but, if he has not, we shall always think he ought to, as the grounds are just as good for it, as for the other requisitions of the kind he has made.

COMPLIMENTARY TO RALEIGH.—Mr. Jas. A. Oates, of the Burlesque Opera Troupe, who was in our city last week, after alluding to the Hotels in Wilmington, and recommending, the "Clifford House," of that city, adds the following in regard to our city of Raleigh:

"I also take pleasure in calling the attention of the profession to the Yarborough House, kept by Mr. Blair; and Tucker Hall, Raleigh, N. C. Both Mr. Tucker and Mr. Blair spare no pains to make a company's stay in this city pleasant an I profitable. Raleigh is one of the best show towns in the State.

JAMES A. OATES,
Manager.

Mrs Jas. A. Oates' Bur and Operatic Co."

INSURED.—We are requested by Friday Jones, to say that he has insured his house on the lot near the First colored Baptist Church in this city, in the Georgia Home Insurance Company of Columbus Ga. for the sum of four hundred dollars, and his furniture for fifty dollars, according to his promise to certain parties. We have seen the policy, regularly signed by P. F. Pescud, Agent for the company. Friday advises all colored persons to follow his example in regard to insuring.

PAYMENT OF INSURANCE.—The following acknowledgement of the receipt of the full amount of an insurance policy issued to Mr. D J. Ramsey, of Beaufort, is another evidence of the propriety of making that sort of provision for the protection of one's family in case of death. The Æ na has paid to the representatives of various families in this State, within the last three years, one hundred and fifty-three thousand dollars:

BEAUFORT, N. C., March 28th, 1870.

MR. C. LOWENBERG, Local Agent for "Ætna" Life Ins. Co., Hartford, Conn.

SIR:—Through W. H. Crow, General Agent, Raleigh, N. C., I have to acknowledge the receipt of $10,000.00 for Policy No. 35,606, held by Mr. David J. Ramsey, deceased, in the Æ na Company, and with pleasure recommend you to the community at large as an efficient Agent, as well as our excellent company for their prompt payment of claims against them.

Yours respectfully,
WM. B. DUNCAN, Atty.
of D. J. Ramsey, deceased.

WHAT BECOMES OF THE CATS.—We suppose that there are, in this city, on an average, four thousand cats. Now, if one half of these be females, and they increase to the number of twelve kittens a year, each, it would give us the first year, twenty-four thousand, the second, one hundred and sixty-eight thousand, and the third, about enough to cover the whole space within the city limits. But we know they do not increase at this rate, hence, the question naturally arises, What becomes of the cats?

It is our opinion that about one-sixth of them are drowned in kittenhood, one fourteenth die natural deaths, one-ninth are killed by dogs, one-twentieth run away to the country, and the remainder, which is a little over two thirds of the whole, find their way, purposely or accidentally, into the open wells of the city.—We may have somewhat overrated the proportion, but we think we are nearly correct.

THE DAVIDSON MONTHLY.—This is the title of a spirited little Magazine just started at Davidson College, edited by six young gentlemen of that institution, and published by Smith, Watson & Co., of Charlotte. It is well printed, the contributions very good, and the editorials lively and appropriate. We commend it to public favor; price $2 for a single subscriber, six for $10, twelve for $18.

It is said that the capitalists of Chicago have expended nearly one million of dollars in bringing the Elgin Watch Factory to its present state of perfection. They now have the finest and most completely equipped factory in the world, and are receiving profitable returns from their investment. Great credit is certainly due to the men who inaugurated this enterprise, and who have stood by it for the past six years, until it has been made a success.

Reasons Why

You should use BUTT'S IMPROVED LIQUID HAIR DYE.

Because the Barbers say it is the best.
Because it imparts a natural color.
Because it does not injure the hair.
Because it leaves the hair soft and glossy.
Because it does not stain the skin or bed linen.
Because its application is simple and easy.
Because its effect is instantaneous.
Because it is the best in the world.

THE BRIGNOLI-MCCULLOCH OPERA TROUPE.—This musical Company sung an opera, as previously announced, in Tucker Hall, Wednesday night, and not only was the parquette fully occupied by the elite and fashionable of our citizens, but the gallery also showed a goodly array of pleased and pleasant faces.

We are not sufficiently skilled in musical science and musical terms, nor possessed of sufficient musical cultivation, to write a reliable critique on the performance. We are sorry to have to confess so much, but it is true. We can only speak of the singers and their singing, as both impressed us, and if our ideas are crude and inartistic, why, we can't help. When we have a regular winter operatic season, and the best operas presented night after night for weeks and months together, we will study the subject more and be better prepared to write sensibly and "by the card" in regard to such matters.

The opera given on Wednesday night was, "Il Trovatore," which, we take it, means "the Troubadour." The Troubadours, as all our readers know, were a school of poets that sung between the eleventh and thirteenth centuries, in the South of France and North of Italy, and were great on legends and love stories. Of course the piece could not be as well nor as fully rendered in Raleigh with a limited company, as in a large city with a full corps, chorus and orchestra; but it was very well given, notwithstanding. We know but little of the artistic execution, but to our ear and judgment, the music was pleasing, just as the sweet songs of birds or other pleasant and harmonious sounds would be pleasing. We judge that the singers have a natural talent for music, and that talent pretty well cultivated, or they could not have sung so well.

Miss McCulloch, as Leonora, sung well throughout, but not so animatedly, we thought, in the first three acts as in the fourth. In the latter she was charming. She is pretty in face, of beautiful form, of majestic appearance on the stage, and lacks but very little, if anything, of being emphatically a prima donna in music. Her voice, naturally rich, needs, perhaps, a little more cultivation to give her a thorough control of it, which she will, in time acquire, and we expect to hear of her being ranked among the finest singers of the age.

Miss Henne is a sweet and pleasant singer, and a good actress. She rendered the character of the Gypsy in fine style on Wednesday night, portraying the passions as well as we have ever seen it done.

Brignoli was not in as good voice altogether, we thought, as when he was here last year, owing to the effect of a slight cold, still he sung well—only as Brignoli can sing; for it seems he has nothing to do but open his mouth and the notes roll themselves out in perfect harmony, without effort or mistake.

The other members of the Company, though esteemed as lesser lights, are nevertheless good singers and sustained their parts well.

Altogether the occasion was a pleasant one; the music was much better than we are used to about here, as a general thing, and in the prison scene in the last act was superb.

The audience, though not very demonstrative, were highly gratified, and would like an opportunity for such another evening's entertainment.

The Piano used on the occasion was from the Manufactory of Mr. Charles M. Stieff, of Baltimore.

Caution.—Audacious Counterfeit!

The reputation which, for many years, has attached to "Hostetter's Stomach Bitters," as the STANDARD TONIC OF THE AGE and the large demand for the article, not only in the United States but elsewhere, have provoked the cupidity of the counterfeiter; and it has been extensively SIMULATED and IMITATED by unscrupulous adventurers.

The most daring counterfeit of said article, which has been attempted, has recently come to our knowledge. The engraved steel label on bottles containing the genuine bitters, with its beautiful vignette of St. George and the dragon, its shield containing a warning against counterfeiters, and its note of hand for "one cent" at the foot, signed with our firm name, has been copied so closely, that the fraud can only be detected on a minute inspection. The dark label is also well counterfeited, and the wording on both the imitation and genuine, are precisely the same, the difference being simply in the execution of the work; that of the imitation being somewhat coarser than the genuine. Other counterfeits are on the market, which are in all particulars the same as described above, with the exception of a slight difference in the spelling of our name.

In addition to the above, these counterfeiters have gone so far in some instances as to place a strip of paper over the cork and fasten to the neck of the bottle, on which is a vignette and otherwise printed to resemble the general appearance of our proprietary U. S. Revenue stamp, but upon inspection will disclose the absence of the figure "4" and the words "four cents," also "United States Internal Revenue," all of which, together with additional words, appear on our genuine stamp. The public are, therefore, especially warned against these new COUNTERFEITS, and are advised to purchase Hostetter's Stomach Bitters only of houses whose integrity is above suspicion. The true specific is sold in bottles ONLY—never in bulk.—HOSTETTER & SMITH.

The bill selling the Marine Hospital at Natchez, Miss., for educational purpose, passed.

The Democrats from New York and Indiana protested against counting these States for the 15th amendment. The tariff bill was resumed.

The Senate confirmed Dr. Burd as Governor of Idaho.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, March 30.—The arguments in the Circuit Court in the injunction case of Cahoon vs. Ellyson, closed to-day. Ex-Governor Wise making the closing speech for Cahoon; He repudiated in strong terms any affiliation with the Black Republican party and claimed to be still an "unreconstructed rebel," and did not want his position misunderstood because he appeared as counsel for Cahoon. He claimed that the Court had jurisdiction because Cahoon as a United States officer was not to go out of office until the regular election by the people.

Ellyson's counsel claimed that the admission of the State terminated the powers of all provisional officers. The decision affects all offices in the State which were nearly all filled by military appointments, who will remain in office until July 6th.

Decision in favor of Cahoon.

MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, March 30.—Advices via Springfield from Garretsville Texas, March 8th report a Commanche massacre of over 40 families in Western Texas. The dispatch states that Bellvered, Commander at Fort Sell, could have prevented the massacre.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, March 30.—A prominent Shipping and Commission house has suspended today, causing much surprise; they have a large connection in New York and the South.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, March 30.—The Post says that the government is preparing an expedition of a thousand men with a steel battery to suppress the Red River insurrection in America.

Thursday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The House is discussing the transfer of Freedmen Bureau property to the Educational Bureau.

SENATE.—Texas Senators seated. The Ames question is up.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Beecher addressed a meeting, at which Peter Cooper presided, against Sectarian teachings in public school.

The steamer Hamilo arrived with fifteen persons from the disabled steamer "Venezuela," from Liverpool for Aspinwall, leaving forty-six persons on board the disabled steamer to port. From the report of rough weather following, it is feared that the steamer went down.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—The steamship Webfoot, arrived at San Diego with the Captain and missing crew, and $800,000 of treasure from the wreck of the steamer "Golden City."

FOREIGN.

HAVANA, March 31.—It is asserted that Jordan is abandoning the Cuban cause and has reached Lob K y Legal House.

San Domingo voted thirty to one in favor of annexation. The papers favored the scheme on the ground that the United States would civilize, tranquilize and enrich the Island.

UTAH.

SALT LAKE CITY March 31.—Meetings against Cullum's Anti-polygamy bill continue.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Stocks steady, Money easy; sterling long 8½, short 9; Gold 12; 6's 11½; Ln's, new 7-3, Levee 6s 77, 8s 93½; Ala's. 96, 5s 80.

Corn drooping, other breadstuffs unchanged; Pork firmer, 26.50 to 26 60; Cotton unchanged; Spirits Turpentine 47; Rosin, strained 3; Freights steady.

LONDON, March 31.—Bonds 91½. Consols 93½.

LIVERPOOL, March 31.—Cotton firmer, sales 12,000.

Thursday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Revenue to-day $375,000.

The National Bank delegation argued further against the funding bill before the Ways and Means Committee.

Bontwell presented a mass of evidence to show the Banks could operate profitably on 4½ per cent bonds.

Attorney General Hoar argued to-day before the Supreme Court, in favor of re-opening the legal tender decision, which was made by one majority, with vacancies on the bench.

Carlisle opposed. They had nothing to do with majorities; much trouble arose from such reviews.

HOUSE.—After a long argument on the bill transferring the property of the Freedmen's Bureau, to the Educational Bureau, and the acceptance of an amendment that the money shall be expended under the direction of the Presidents of the United states, a motion to table was lost, yeas 84, nays 8.

The morning hour expiring the bill went over.

Paine reported a resolution seating the Texas members. Shanks objected to Conner and read certain expressions of disloyalty from that gentleman. Butler read about Conner's cruelty to soldiers when a federal captain. Brooks made a point of order that the House had nothing to do with the previous private character of persons elected. The Chair overruled the point. Finally all the members were seated. The following are the names of the Texas delegation: W. J. Clark, J. C. Conner, E. L. Edger and G. W. Whitmore.

SENATE.—The Ames question occupied all day; no result.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, March 31.—Judge Underwood today granted an injunction restraining Mayor Ellyson from acting as Mayor. He also refused an appeal on the ground that the injunction was granted to continue only until the next term.

Ellyson's counsel have given notice of the intention to disobey the order of the Court, in order to cause the arrest of Ellyson and then bring the case before the Supreme Court on a writ of habeas corpus.

The Judge in his decision declares the "Enabling Act," passed by the Legislature unconstitutional, which decision affects nearly all the officers in the State.

LATER.

RICHMOND, March 31.—The injunction granted this morning was issued this afternoon to Ellyson, the City Council and police; but they went on with the city affairs as usual, Cahoon issued a proclamation this evening, saying, his police force will be promptly reorganized and requesting persons appointed by Ellyson to retire to their homes peacefully that no further breaches of the peace may occur.

It is supposed that when Ellyson holds Court to-morrow, the United States authorities will arrest him, which is the manner in which his counsel hope by writ of habeas corpus to get the case before the Supreme Court. Ellyson's police still have control of the City.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Money 5 to 6; Sterling heavy 8½ to 8¾; Gold 11½; Governments steady, but a shade lower; 6's 10½; Southern generally lower.

Cotton steady, sales 2,300 bales at 22½; Flour without decided change; Wheat less active price unchanged; Corn inactive, Western mixed 1.03 to 1.05; Pork closed heavy 26½; Lard quiet, kettle 15 to 15½; Whiskey 99½ to 1.00

LIVERPOOL, March 31.—Cotton quiet and steady, Uplands 10½; Orleans 11½ to 11¾, sales 12,000.

CARD.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE CO.

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

AT the request of General Jno. B. Gordon, President Atlanta Department, I have come to your State to bring prominently before you the claims and merits of the Southern Life Insurance Company. It is under the control of as honorable and as responsible men as there are in the land. It is managed in the most prudent and economical manner and will deal justly and fairly with all.

We have no war to make upon other Insurance Companies, but we do wish to impress upon the people the importance of keeping their money at home. By careful calculation it is estimated that a sum of not less than twelve millions (annually) is sent from the South to the North for Life Insurance and unless checked will surely prove suicidal to our interests. We ask you to consider how greatly the material interest of this section would be benefited by the retention of these enormous sums in our midst.

We send no money away to enrich foreign capitalists but every dollar of premium (less expenses) IS INVESTED IN THE STATE FROM WHICH IT IS DERIVED.

This department of the Company has operated both in Georgia and South Carolina, and has done an unprecedentedly large business. Some of the most prominent gentlemen in those States are identified with its interest. Its Board of Directors embrace the names of the ablest financiers, and most successful business men in the South. They are the Trustees of the sacred fund of the widow and orphan. Will you not trust your friends and neighbors; or is it more secure in the hands of strangers? We appeal to you to assist us in pushing forward this deservedly popular and reliable Southern corporation. Its solvency is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in the United States, its ratio of assets to liabilities the only true test of a Company's strength, fully sustaining this statement.—We would respectfully call attention to the Board of Directors and Stockholders, published in another column, and to our Board of Reference in this State and others.

DISEASE, LIKE A THIEF,

UNTIL YOU ASCERTAIN FROM

P. F. PESCUD,

General Agent for North Carolina,

WHY THE

National Life Insurance Company,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

can, and does issue a larger Policy for less money than any other Company, represented in North Carolina.

The National was organized in August 1868. She has issued nearly

10,000 POLICIES,

HAS A CASH CAPITAL OF

$1,000,000,

which was all paid in before a Policy was issued and which has already increased fifty per cent. All the losses reported to her Army list amounted to but $40,000, and as a further evidence of the great care observed in the selection of risks, 943 applications amounting to nearly $3,000,000, were rejected last year. Therefore a solid basis and investments that none but Stock Companies can afford, is enjoyed by all who prefer the National to Mutual or mixed Companies.

ALL LIABILITY FOR LOSSES IS AVOIDED.

Every man who has a family, should try to create an Estate for their support, when he is taken from them by death—and a very small annuity spent for a Policy secures a larger amount of Cash Assets, and is far more certain, than the same amount will secure in any other investment; and a more tender expression of love and responsibility could not in any other way be more beautifully expressed.

GLOBE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

CITY OF NEW YORK.

"STRONG, LIBERAL, SAFE, AND OF ESTABLISHED REPUTATION. THE GLOBE OFFERS EVERY INDUCEMENT TO PERSONS DESIROUS OF MAKING PROVISION FOR THOSE WHOM THEY MAY LEAVE BEHIND."

PLINY FREEMAN, President.
LORING ANDREWS, Vice President.
J. A. HADENBURGH, 2d Vice President.
H. C. FREEMAN, Secretary.

Managed by able men, thoroughly experienced in the business of Life Insurance; its business since its organization has exceeded that of any other Company for the corresponding period of its existence.

DR. E. BURKE HAYWOOD, Examining Physician.

Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER, Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."

DE SOTO MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI.

JAMES P. LUCAS, President

CAPITAL STOCK, (PAID UP,) $150,000.00!

Stockholders bound for Double the Amount of Stock!

$100,000 DEPOSITED WITH THE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, JAMES H. LUCAS, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans, and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

UPWARD AND ONWARD!!

WHY IS IT BEST TO INSURE IN THE,

BROOKLYN LIFE?

BECAUSE,

AMONG OTHER REASONS, IT IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN THE UNITED STATES WHICH PRESENTS THE GREAT FEATURE OF GUARANTEEING DEFINITE

CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

ALL POLICIES

Are non-forfeitable after two full Annual Premiums have been paid.

The policy-holders of this Company may travel or reside where they choose—anywhere on the Globe.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company.

DIVIDENDS ARE PAID IN CASH,

or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

PRINCIPAL OFFICE AT ST. LOUIS, MO., OLIVE STREET, No. 313.

No Life Insurance Company in the United States offers superior advantages for insurance or investment, than the St. Louis Mutual. It is managed by gentlemen of the highest capacity and standing and it enjoys the largest confidence of those acquainted with Insurance Companies.

Its Policies are liberal; its premiums moderate and made easy; its losses are paid promptly and its investments are made on the most solid basis, being principally in improved real estate worth twice the amount invested, paying ten per cent per annum.

All its Policies are non-forfeitable and participate in Profits from the beginning.

Dividends declared and applied annually to policy holders on the contribution plan.

The Company is strictly Mutual, and the profits of its business are paid not to stockholders but to its policy holders.

An equitable surrender value paid to all who through misfortune are unable to keep up their policies.

Pianos for Sale! Pianos for Sale.

MR. WILLIAM H. VAUGHAN, WELL known in our community as a Musician and Piano Tuner, is now appointed Agent for those splendid, Seven Octave, fine Rose Wood Pianos, built by C. M. Tremaine & Bro. These Pianos will be warranted for six years, and Mr. Vaughan is here ready to keep the instrument in perfect tune, if it should need it. He has at this time one of the Pianos at his residence, on Cabarrus Street, a little East of the N. C. R. R. Depot, and would be glad to show it to any one who will call to see it.

These instruments took the premium at the Virginia State Fair, and without doubt are the best and cheapest instruments in the North or South.

Old Pianos taken in exchange for new ones, at a fair price. As I am confident that I can sell cheaper than anybody else, I beg of my own people in the State to give me a call before purchasing elsewhere.

Piano tuning and Repairing done at shortest notice. Can make an old Piano as good almost as new, for a very low sum.

Address,
W. H. VAUGHAN
mar 9-tf Box 390 Raleigh.

IT WILL BE REMEMBERED THAT THE Messrs. Tr'maine Bro's. took the first premium at the Virginia State Fair on their celebrated Pianos. These gentlemen fully understand their business, being thorough musicians themselves. Call at the Store of E. VIA, 36, Fayetteville Street and examine one of the finest they have ever made.
